Searcy, Ark. - North Alabama senior offensive lineman Lance Ancar, West Georgia senior punter Jeff Carpenter, and Harding senior defensive back Torrance Daniels repeated as First Team selections on the 2005 Daktronics All-Southeast Region football team, selected by members of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Eight players earned all-region honors for the second straight year, including Delta State junior quarterback Scott Eyster, North Alabama junior all-purpose back Anthony Merritt, and North Carolina Central sophomore kicker Brandon Gilbert who moved up from Second Team to First Team this season. Presbyterian safety Chad Burgess and Arkansas Tech tight end Josh Rogers repeated on the Second Team. Carson-Newman and North Alabama had the most honorees with six.

First Team honorees move on to the national All-America ballot. The All-America team will be released on Dec. 15.

The team is sponsored by Daktronics, Inc., an acknowledged world leader in scoring, timing and programmable display systems for virtually every sport at every level of competition.
